Dear Elaine Reynolds,

RE: Federal Aviation Administration Advisory Circular AC 00-56B

On behalf of BSI Group America Inc. I would like to thank you for your continued interest in BSI's registration services. This letter is intended to meet the requirements spelled out in Section 8, items e and f, certifying compliance with the standards of AC 00-56B.

The review of these requirements was undertaken during your AS9120B audit conducted on August 24, 2020 with Gary Szychulski as documented on report number 3119235. The above referenced report includes information pertaining to Intertrade Limited, A Collins Aerospace Company compliance with the subject Advisory Circular as specified in Section 6, items a through q. In accordance with Section 10, item d of this Advisory Circular, the expiration date of the AC 00-56B accreditation is October 19, 2023. Section 13 of AC 00-56B, indicates that BSI shall perform at a minimum, one surveillance audit during the 36-month cycle. Throughout the three-year cycle BSI will continue to perform surveillance assessments to verify conformance to the AS9120B standard. Before the end of the 36-month certification cycle BSI will perform a recertification for Intertrade Limited, A Collins Aerospace Company to the requirements of AS9120B and verify conformance the Federal Aviation Administration Advisory Circular AC 00-56B. If all the criteria are met then a new letter of conformance to the Federal Aviation Administration Advisory Circular AC 00-56B will be issued with a new date of expiration.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact the undersigned at Tel. 571-228-2304 or at scott.neas@bsigroup.com who would be happy to assist. Thank you again for the opportunity to continue our working relationship with your organization.

Sincerely,

Scott Neas
